

A consultant led, legal neutral, resolution focussed 8-step programme. Designed to help you navigate divorce together.

Step One

- A 15 minute initial consultation with each client to assess safeguarding and risk.

Step Two

- A 60 minute joint meeting to ascertain background and context, discuss the divorce process and financial remedy matters.

Step Three

- Clients prepare financial disclosure, send it to their consultant, whereupon it is reviewed in readiness for Step Four.

Step Four

- A 30 minute joint meeting to identify whether any disclosure remains outstanding, or whether further disclosure is necessary to present an overall picture of the matrimonial pot.

Step Five

- A 60 minute joint meeting to discuss the application of the Section 25 Factors, and options for settlement. This shall include discussion of finer details and the structure of clauses.

Step Six

- A 60 minute joint meeting to consider negotiations, narrow and resolve issues of disagreement and finalise an agreed settlement.

Step Seven

- The 'Clean Break' Consent Order and all supporting documents are drawn up in readiness for signature.

Step Eight

- You file the Consent Order with the Court, seeking judicial approval, sealing and enforceability. You have now concluded the financial negotiations.
